

DRAFT 2

19 August 1957

Dear Sir,

STATINTL

Since our talk last week, I have been giving much thought to your suggestion that I help in a consulting capacity with the work of [REDACTED] I now have your letter confirming your offer.

STATINTL

Much as I would like to undertake this assignment, in fairness STATINTL to colleagues in my new business venture I could only do so in the context of the Company's operations. In other words, if [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] were willing to contract with our new Company for certain consulting services, I would be glad personally to do the work outlined in your letter and elaborated during our talk.

I greatly appreciate the confidence expressed in your proposal, and you can be sure that if we do arrange a contract, I will do what I can to further the purposes you have in mind.
